THE UNIVERSITY

The University

The University of Kansas is a major public research and teaching institution with lofty goals and a global outlook. The historic buildings and tree-covered campus, along with top-ranked academic programs and growing research endeavors, provide an environment that inspires and challenges students and faculty. Students find a home that is wireless yet historic, on the edge of both prairie and a metropolis with a myriad of opportunities and activities.

KU has an enrollment of 30,102 students and more than 2,200 faculty members. The University of Kansas includes the main campus in Lawrence, a city of about 90,000 in northeastern Kansas; the medical center in Kansas City, Kan.; the Edwards Campus in Overland Park; a clinical campus of the School of Medicine in Wichita; and educational and research facilities throughout the state.

Culture

The Lawrence campus offers a rich cultural life. Residents, students and visitors alike have a variety of venues to enjoy including the Lied Center of Kansas, a 2,020-seat performing arts hall; the Robert J. Dole

Institute of Politics, an $11-million, 28,000-square-foot facility that houses dynamic exhibits and the world's largest congressional archive, as well as meeting spaces and KU's first satellite uplink; the Spencer Museum of Art, which houses an internationally-known collection that is deep and diverse, currently numbering nearly 36,000 artworks and artifacts in all media; the Natural History Museum; along with venues in the Metropolitan Kansas City area including the Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art, the Jazz Museum, the Lyric Opera, the Kansas City Ballet and the Linda Hall Library, one of the largest engineering, science and technology libraries in the world, and the Dinolab, KU's fossil preparation laboratory which is a public exhibit at Kansas City's Science City museum in Union Station.

University Statistics

- KU has an enrollment of 30,102 students, including 20,811 undergraduates on the Lawrence campus. KU attracts more than 1,500 international students from more than 110 countries. The average ACT score of 24.8 exceeds the national average.
- KU offers nearly 200 fields of study in 13 different schools, from architecture, music and engineering to medicine, social welfare and law.
- KU has more than 40 nationally ranked academic programs, 28 of which are ranked among the nation's top 30 public schools. Two are number one in the nation: special education and city management/urban policy. Among the top 10 rankings are the school of education and programs in community health, occupational therapy, nursing and petroleum engineering.
- KU ranks seventh in nation among "most popular" public universities, per US News' Student Choice Awards.

- Counselors from US News' "best high schools" rank KU 12th in nation, based on a survey of academic reputation.
- The KU School of Journalism has won the Intercollegiate Writing Competition in 2007, 2008 and 2009.
- The KU Debate team won the national championship in 2009, its fifth national title.
- KU's School of Pharmacy ranks third in the nation for NIH research funding and fifth in nation in exam pass rates.
- KU's Confucius Institute is ranked among the top four in the nation, top 20 in the world.
- KU ranked ninth in the world in the rate of new patents issued.
- KU's law school ranks 10th in nation for hands-on educational opportunities.
- When Forbes Magazine named the 100 most powerful women in the world, two KU graduates were in the top five.
- KU promotes a global education and ranks 11th in nation for study abroad participation and 25th in Peace Corps participation among large doctoral universities.
- KU has produced 25 Rhodes Scholars, more than all of Kansas universities combined.
- Design-build projects by KU architecture students have won Architecture Magazine's Home of Year twice in 3 years, and KU built the first student constructed LEED-Platinum certified building in the state.

KU Tuition & Fees

In fall 2007, KU initiated its groundbreaking Four-Year Tuition Compact for incoming freshmen. Under the compact, incoming freshmen will have no tuition increases for four years, the time it takes to complete most bachelor's degree programs.

The Jayhawk Generations Scholarship offers a 12 to 20 percent discount on out-of-state tuition for qualifying children of KU alumni who live outside Kansas.

Visit KU

The KU Visitor Center at 15th and Iowa streets is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays and on select weekends. Check out the many visit options available by logging on to www.admissions.ku.edu, calling (785) 864-3911 or e-mailing visit@ku.edu.

KANSAS TRADITIONS

The Rock Chalk Chant

The Rock Chalk Chant has been the battle cry of KU fans for more than 80 years. This strange, traditional chant, which is among the most famous of all college cheers, was started by E.H.S. Bailey, a professor of chemistry. Bailey wanted a cheer for his Science Club. Returning from a convention in Wichita, Bailey and some associates patterned a yell after the rhythmic cadence of their train rolling along the tracks. On May 21, 1886, Bailey submitted the cheer to his club.

Before the University adopted the cheer in 1897, it consisted of "Rah, Rah, Jayhawk, KU" being repeated three times. An English professor soon suggested that "Rock Chalk" be substituted for "Rah, Rah" because it rhymed with Jayhawk. "Rock Chalk" was also symbolic of the chalky limestone formations found on Mount Oread. Teddy Roosevelt once said the Rock Chalk chant was the best he had ever heard.

Campanile Hill

Campanile Hill forms the picturesque backdrop for Memorial Stadium. On a sunny fall Saturday, the "Hill" is transformed into a congregating place for watching Jayhawk football, sunning and barbequing. Potter Lake, just to the southeast of Memorial Stadium and at the bottom of Campanile Hill, adds to the beauty of the Kansas campus.

Waving The Wheat

Since the early days of KU sports, it has been a ritual of Jayhawk fans to "wave the wheat" following every Kansas scoring drive. The ritual

What's a Jayhawk?

The University of Kansas is home of the Jayhawk, a mythical bird with a fascinating history. Its origin is rooted in the historic struggles of Kansas settlers. The term "Jayhawk" was probably coined about 1848. Accounts of its use appeared from Illinois to Texas.

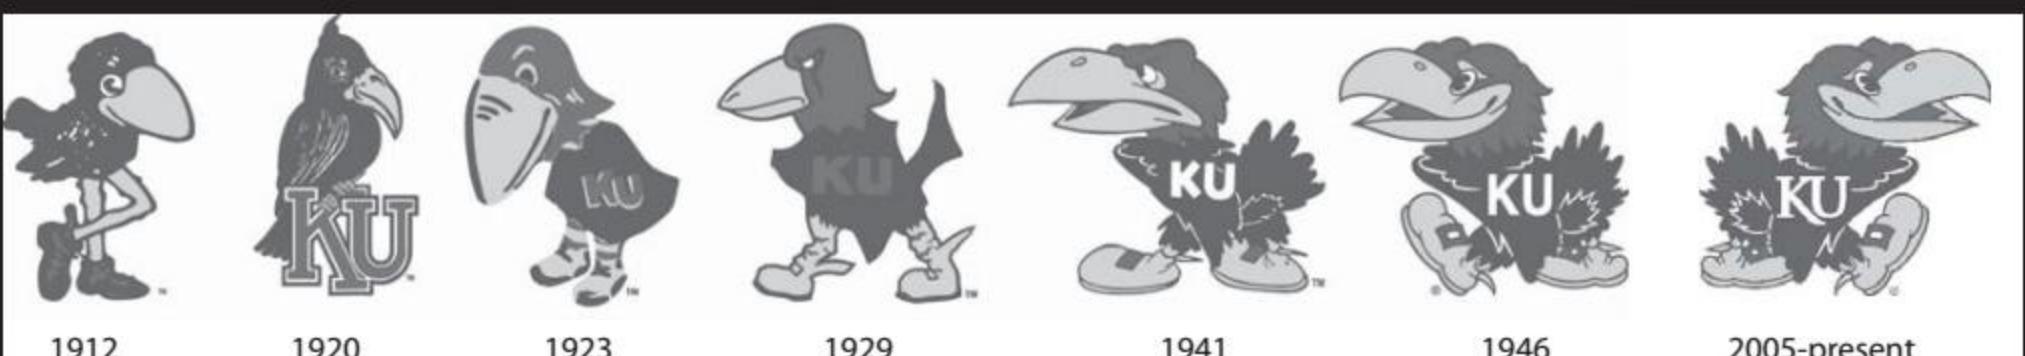

The name combines two birds - the blue jay, a noisy, quarrelsome thing known to rob other nests, and the sparrow hawk, a stealthy hunter. The message here: Don't turn your back on this bird.

consists of fans waving their arms in the air, an activity which, when done by a large crowd, resembles a breezy Kansas wheat field.

The Nickname

During the Civil War a regiment raised by Kansas Governor Charles Robinson called itself the "Independent Mounted Jayhawks" (later officially the First Kansas Cavalry and then the Seventh Kansas Regiment). By the end of the Civil War the word Jayhawk was associated with the spirit of camaraderie and the courageous fighting qualities that characterized efforts to keep Kansas a free state.

By 1886, the University of Kansas had adopted the mythical bird as part of the KU yell. When the university's football team first took the field in 1890, it seemed only natural that they should be called Jayhawkers. Few colleges and universities have such a meaningful symbol, one so deeply associated with the struggles of the people who founded them.

The Fight Song

George "Dumpy" Bowles, a student with the class of 1912, longed to make a great contribution to the KU spirit, but wasn't athletic enough to do historic deeds on the athletic field. He turned to music and produced some outstanding student musical shows.

A song in one of these shows was "I'm a Jayhawk." Written in 1912, it was dormant until 1920 when a growth in school spirit brought out "I'm a Jayhawk" once more. The song contributed to the raising of funds to build both the KU football stadium and student union as World War I memorials. The 1926 glee club made it known nationally.

The School Colors

The University of Kansas colors, crimson and blue, used since the early 1890s, are not the colors originally adopted by the university Board of Regents in the 1860s. The Regents had decided to adopt the Michigan colors, maize and sky blue.

Maize and blue were used at early oratorical meets, and they may have been used when Kansas competed in rowing in the middle 1880s. However, when football came upon the scene in 1890, the student backers wanted to use Harvard crimson as the athletic color in honor of Col. John J. McCook, a Harvard man, who had given money for an athletic field at KU. That field ran east and west in the proximity of where the north bowl of Memorial Stadium stands on the Kansas campus today.

Some Yale men were on the faculty, and they demanded the Yale blue be included. The rooters rallied forth to allow crimson and blue on their team. No one fought to retain the original colors, and the vivid deeper tone crimson and blue became generally used. Finally, in May 1896, the KU Athletic Board adopted crimson and blue as the official team colors for the university.

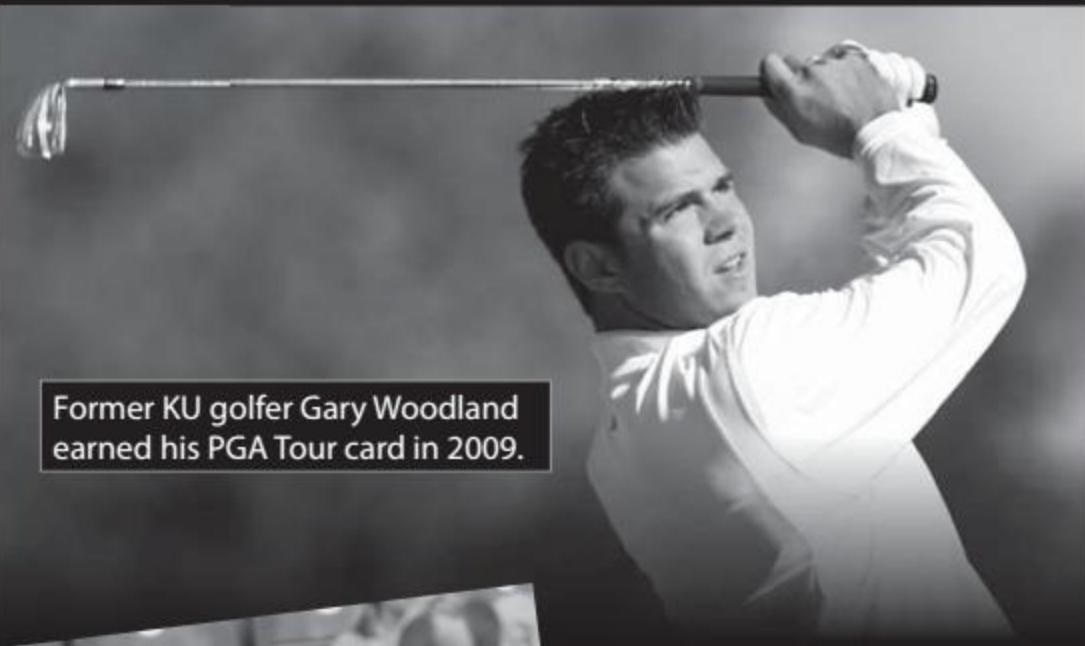

The Alma Mater

In 1891, professor George Barlow Penny searched for a school song for the Glee and Mandolin Club to sing on its tour through Kansas to Denver and back. No one responded with an original song in answer to his appeals. Just before departure, he thought of the Cornell song "Far Above Cayuga's Waters." Hastily changing a few words, he gave it to the glee club men to sing on the trip. He did not expect the song to be used after their return, but "Crimson and the Blue" still goes on. The music is not Cornell's but an old English folk tune, "Annie Lisle."

ATHLETIC EXCELLENCE

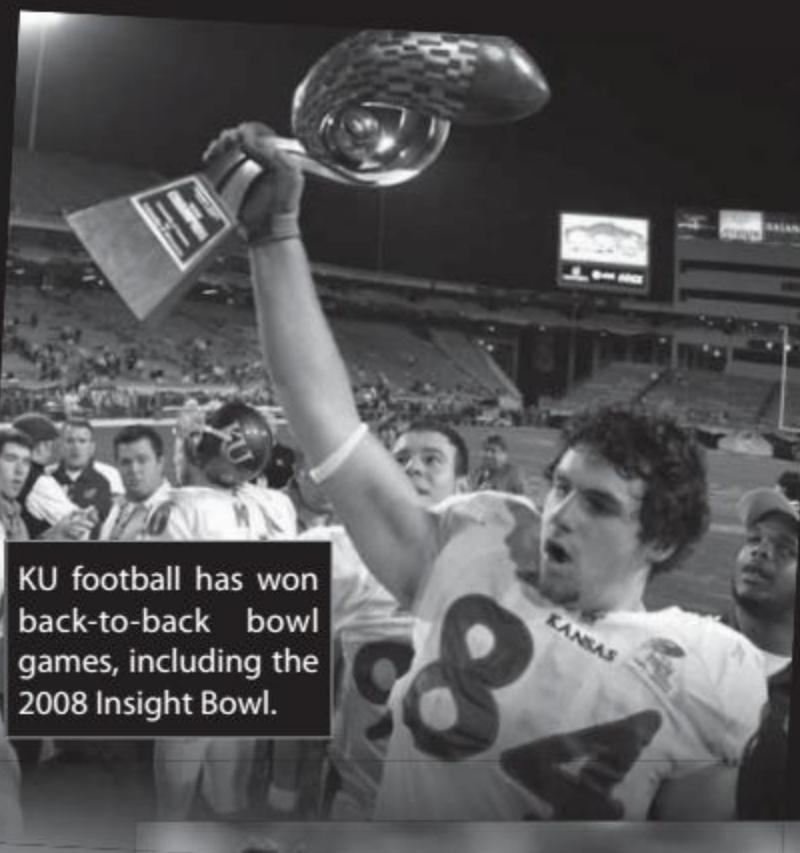

Former KU golfer Gary Woodland earned his PGA Tour card in 2009.

Tony Thompson became the first player in Big 12 history to win the league's triple crown, as he led the conference in batting average, home runs and runs batted in during the 2009 season.

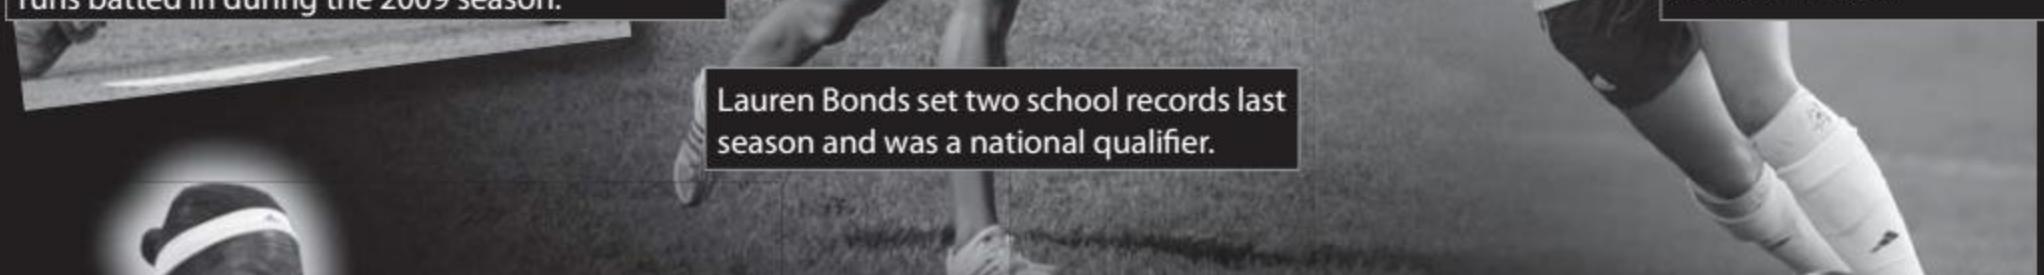

Lauren Bonds set two school records last season and was a national qualifier.

KU football has won back-to-back bowl games, including the 2008 Insight Bowl.

Emily Cressy was tabbed a Freshman All-American and named the Big 12 Rookie of the Year in 2008.

Danielle McCray earned All-America honorable mention accolades and helped lead KU to the 2008 WNIT championship.

Kansas basketball, the 2008 National Champion, has won five-straight conference titles.

VOLLEYBALL EXCELLENCE

In 2003, Kansas volleyball earned its first-ever trip to the NCAA Tournament. The Jayhawks defeated perennial power Long Beach State before bowing out to fourth-ranked Pepperdine.

The Jayhawks defeated Santa Clara in the opening match of the 2004 NCAA Tournament to advance to the second round for a second-straight year. KU was eventually defeated by No. 7 Washington, which advanced all the way to the semifinals, despite battling back from a 0-2 deficit.

In KU's third-straight NCAA Tournament appearance in 2005, the Jayhawks made a valiant effort despite its short-handed roster due to injuries. Kansas fell to No. 12 UCLA, 3-1, in the opening round.

Randy Bird

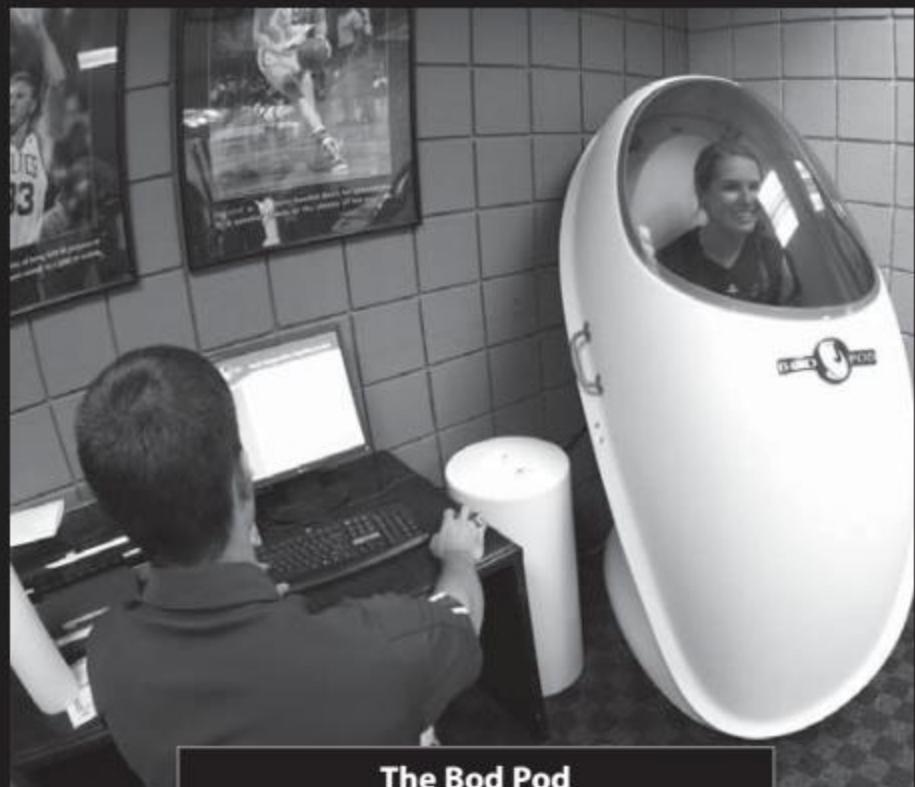

Sports Nutritionist

Randy Bird joined the KU Athletic staff in July of 2005 after working as a clinical dietitian for three years in Giles, Va., and Washington, Pa. He worked as a sports nutritionist in private practice for one year in the Pittsburgh area. As the Sports Nutritionist for KU, he provides nutrition education and counseling the university's 16 athletic teams, collaborating with the sports medicine team and coaches to promote enhanced performance and optimal health in each athlete. He also oversees the Jayhawk Training Table, body composition analysis and dietary supplement evaluation.

Bird is a registered dietitian with the American Dietetic Association, as well as a member of the Sports and Cardiovascular Nutritionists (SCAN), a practice group of the ADA. He is a Board Certified Specialist in Sports Dietetics. Bird is a member of the American Academy of Sports Dietitians and Nutritionists and the American College of Sports Medicine. He is also a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association and a member of the GSSI Sports Nutrition Network.

Bird graduated from Virginia Tech with a bachelor of science degree in human nutrition, foods, and exercise, and later earned a master of science degree in sports nutrition also from Virginia Tech.

Bird currently resides in Lawrence with his wife, Allison, daughter, Rachel, and son, Joel.

The Bod Pod

One of the most accurate and reliable methods to test body composition.

Training Table

- Buffet provided four nights per week.
- Nutrition information provided for every item to assist athletes in choosing the appropriate foods to meet their needs.

Supplementation

- Investigate safety and efficacy of potential supplements.
- Banned substance education as part of team education sessions, individual counseling and educational posters.
- Translate findings from nutrition research into practical advice for athletes, coaches and trainers.

Sport-Specific Team Education

- PowerPoint presentation and handouts prior to start of season and as needed.
- Team-specific nutrition manuals and cookbooks.
- Educational posters inside team locker rooms.
- Quarterly grocery store tours to educate athletes on good food choices.
- Monthly cooking demonstrations to educate athletes on how to prepare healthy meals within their budget.

Body Composition Testing

- Bod Pod: one of the most accurate and reliable methods to test body composition.
- Used to: monitor and track the effectiveness of nutrition, rehabilitation and training; develop individual, team, and/or position-specific body composition targets; provide athletes with added motivation to improve performance; manage/track changes in muscle and fat, rather than overall weight.

Individual Athlete Education

- Performance nutrition
- Healthy weight loss/reducing body fat
- Healthy weight gain/increasing muscle mass
- Eating disorder education
- Supplement evaluation

SPORT PSYCHOLOGIST

Psychological skills training includes the education, acquisition and practice of psychological characteristics which have been found to impact performance; essentially sport psychology consultants teach athletes how to develop, maintain and replicate mental states which have been found to enhance their physical performances. Some of these psychological techniques include: goal setting, imagery, activation management, thought management, attention management, pre-performance preparation plans, performance focus plans, and refocusing or contingency plans.

Megan Harrity

Counseling and Sport Psychologist

Megan Harrity joined Kansas Athletics in July 2006 as its first full-time Counseling and Sport Psychologist.

Harrity is a licensed psychologist with specialized training in working with collegiate student-athletes, who promotes team cohesion and encourages players to integrate mental strategies into their training.

Harrity provides confidential counseling and performance enhancement training to student-athletes. She uses a strengths-based approach to help student-athletes reach their full potential in sport and life. She teaches mental skills such as imagery, positive thinking and relaxation to prepare student-athletes to strengthen their mental game, and she conducts personal counseling for issues such as depression, anxiety, eating disorders, dealing with injury, relationship concerns and adjustment issues.

Harrity grew up in Rochester, NY. She earned a Bachelor of Science degree in psychology from the University of Dayton in 1999 and completed her Ph.D. in Counseling Psychology at The Ohio State University in 2004. Prior to joining Kansas Athletics, Harrity worked at Kansas State University and the University of Cincinnati.

Harrity calls Lawrence home along with her husband, Mike, KU assistant athletic director for student-athlete development.

Kansas sport psychologist Megan Harrity has the help of a "Sport Psych Team," which works closely with the KU volleyball team. The "Sport Psych Team" emphasizes the importance of building relationships with both players and coaches to better understand the team's strengths, as well as ways that they might improve their mental skill techniques.

While working with the Kansas volleyball team, the "Sport Psych Team" provides:

- An assessment of the team's mental strengths and barriers.
- Team-building strategies, emphasizing the role of team dynamics, communication, role-responsibility and commitment.
- Consultation with coaches regarding team-building strategies.
- Individual psychological skills training with athletes.

Sport Psych Team

Brett Haskell, a native of Lincoln, Neb., earned a Bachelor of Science degree in psychology from the University of Nebraska at Kearney in 2005 and completed her M.S. in Sport Psychology at the University of North Carolina-Greensboro in 2008. Brett is currently working on her Ph.D. in Counseling Psychology at the University of Kansas.

Mary Fry teaches sport and exercise psychology in the Department of Health, Sport and Exercise Science at KU. Before coming to KU she taught at the University of Memphis. She earned a Master's degree in sport psychology from the University of North Carolina-Greensboro, and a Ph.D. in sport and exercise psychology from Purdue University.

Candace Hogue attended Emory University for her undergraduate studies, earning a Bachelor of Science in psychology, as well as a Bachelor of Business Administration from Goizueta Business School. She also spent a semester studying abroad at the University of Manchester Institute of Science and Technology in England. She is currently pursuing a Master's in Sport Psychology under the supervision of Fry.

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

As the Strength and Conditioning staff at the University of Kansas, we believe in the pursuit of excellence in our student-athletes as well as ourselves. It is our goal to provide each student-athlete with personalized instruction and a program tailored to meet the demands of each sport and position in our state-of-the-art training facility. Every student-athlete will be provided with the opportunity to enhance their sport performance through proper strength training and conditioning until they have fulfilled, if not exceeded, their athletic potential.

Cody Roberts

Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

A former University of Kansas athlete, Cody Roberts returns to his alma mater where he begins his first year as the strength coach for the Jayhawk volleyball program.

Roberts, who is currently working toward a master's in exercise science, is responsible for designing and implementing a strength and conditioning program for KU volleyball along with the tennis and swimming and diving programs. In addition, Roberts assists with baseball and track, as well as the maintenance and organization of the weight room equipment and supplements.

Prior to his return to Kansas, Roberts was a graduate assistant for the strength and conditioning department at Illinois State University in 2008. While with the Redbirds, he worked directly with women's soccer, cross country and throwers, while also assisting extensively with programming, planning and coaching for football, men's and women's basketball, volleyball and baseball.

A former member of the Kansas track and field team, Roberts competed in the discus and hammer throw for the Jayhawks from 2003-07 before completing an internship at KU from August-December 2007.

He is a certified Sports Performance Coach through USA Weightlifting (USAW) and a certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA). Roberts graduated from KU in December 2007 with a Bachelor's of Science in Education (B.S.E.) in exercise science.

Coach Roberts' Philosophy:

Evaluate preparedness of student-athlete:

- Safety Driven Environment
- Ensure Proper Movements and Mechanics
- Progression from Basic to Advanced Movements

Prepare student-athlete for competition utilizing:

- Postural Restoration Exercises
- Olympic-style Lifting Movements
- Free Weights
- Sport/Position Specific Training
- Energy System Training

Work alongside sports medicine staff to ensure every individual is maximizing their time and dedication as a student-athlete:

- Education of Proper Recovery and Restoration
- Address Weakness and Imbalance
- Develop Competitive Excellence

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Student-Athlete Support Services Mission Statement

The Student-Athlete Support Services staff focuses all collective resources in support of the academic, personal and interpersonal development of each individual it serves. As part of its commitment to the academic success of its athletes, Kansas Athletics recently completed a new academic complex in the summer of 2009. The facility features individual study rooms and a computer lab.

Scott Ward

Senior Associate Director of Academic & Career Counseling

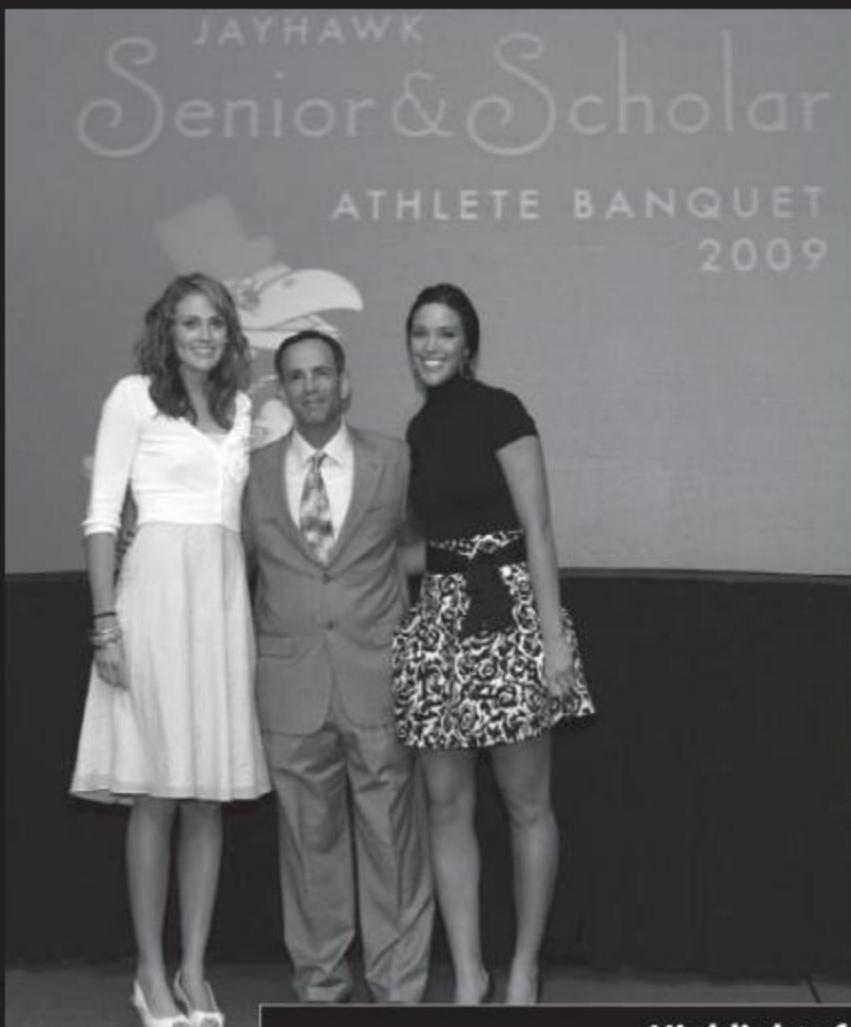

Scott Ward is in his seventh year in the Student Support Services department.

Ward assists in the coordination of various support services, including course scheduling, academic progress monitoring, individual counseling and Big 12 Conference and NCAA certification. In addition to working directly with volleyball, Ward also supervises the KU men's basketball program.

Prior to assuming his current position in the summer of 2003, Ward was a faculty member in the School of Education at the University of Kansas. He received multiple teaching awards as an instructor in the Health, Sport and Exercise Science department.

A native of Kingman, Kan., Ward has earned three degrees from KU: a B.S.Ed. in Education with emphasis in Exercise Science in 1991; an M.S.Ed. in Education with emphasis in Athletic Administration and Sport Psychology in 1993; and a Ph.D. in Education with emphasis in Sport Psychology and support in Counseling Psychology in 1996.

Ward and the former Robin Harnden were married Aug. 13, 2005.

Strategic and Instructional Tutoring Programs

- The strategic and instructional tutoring program (STP) schedules more than 900 hours of tutoring each week for more than 250 student-athletes.
- For the current year, Kansas Athletics has allocated more than $1.6 million toward student-athlete support, including $400,000 for tutoring services.
- Tutoring is available to any student-athlete, regardless of scholarship status or sport.
- Many of the tutors working within STP are instructors or teaching assistants at KU. Some are undergraduate students who have excelled in their respective subject areas.
- STP offers individualized tutoring as well as small study groups.

Highlights from the 2008-09 Academic Year

- A total of 390 student-athletes posted a 3.0 GPA or higher to qualify for the Athletic Director's Honor Roll.
- KU student-athletes set grade-point average records in both the spring and fall of 2008.
- Volleyball posted a 3.32 team GPA for the spring semester to lead all Kansas athletic teams.
- KU landed a league-leading seven student-athletes on the Academic All-Big 12 Volleyball Team. In all, 105 KU student-athletes earned Academic All-Big 12 honors.

ACTIVE IN THE COMMUNITY

Kansas Athletics facilitates and encourages involvement by our teams and individual student-athletes in the life of their community outside the boundaries of their normal college existence. As volunteers, KU student-athletes not only represent themselves, but also their respective teams, Kansas Athletics and the University of Kansas. By volunteering and giving back to Lawrence and surrounding communities, KU student-athletes gain leadership skills through service while providing a positive influence in their community.

Mike Harrity

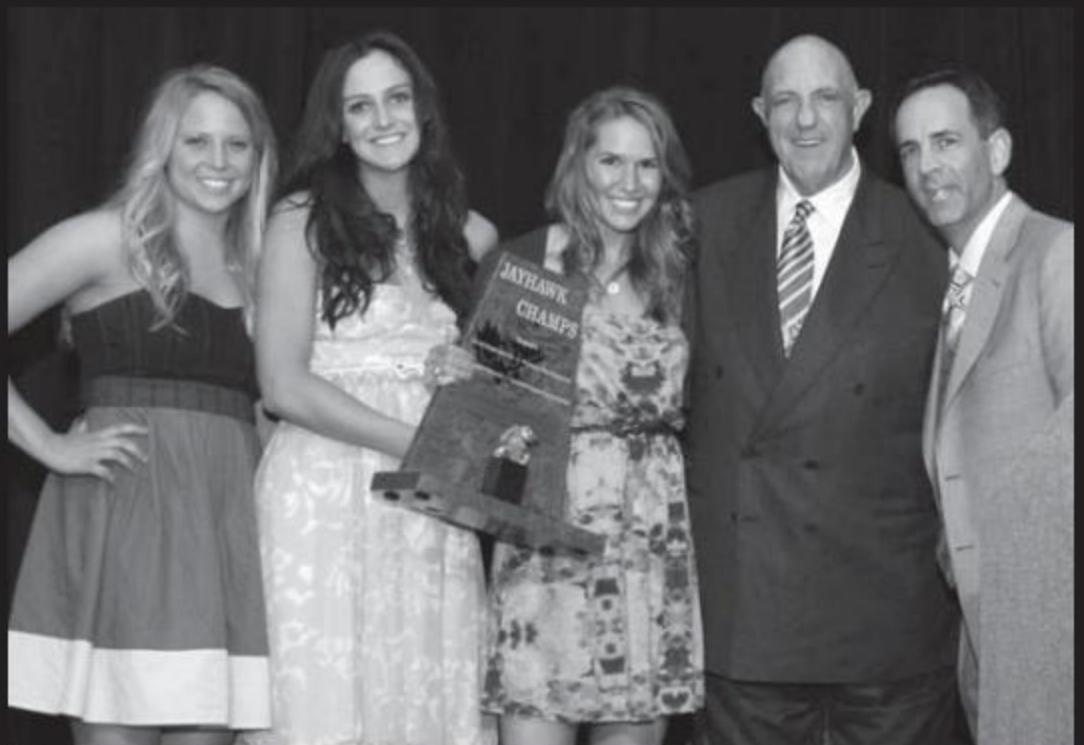

Assistant AD for Student-Athlete Development and Community Relations

In his fifth season at KU, Mike Harrity is responsible for all personal development educational programming, serves as the advisor for the Student Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) and directs the community outreach plan for the athletics department. Prior to his position at Kansas, Harrity worked at the University of Minnesota Athletics Department as the Coordinator of Student Athlete Development, planning and implementing CHAMPS/Life Skills educational programming.

Harrity has earned two degrees from The University of Kansas - a bachelor's in journalism and a master's in education, with an emphasis in sports administration. As a graduate student, he worked in Student-Athlete Support Services, overseeing the Jayhawk Job Network and serving as the advisor for SAAC.

Harrity is also currently working on a book that explores the lifelong, positive impact legendary UCLA basketball coach John Wooden has had on those he has taught.

Harrity and his wife, Megan, KU's counseling and sport psychologist, reside in Lawrence.

Volleyball won the 2008-09 Jayhawk CHAMPS (Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success) award. CHAMPS is a competition designed to appeal to student-athletes' competitiveness and rewards those teams who encourage and participate in personal development opportunities as well as building camaraderie between all Jayhawk teams.

The Horejsi Family Athletics Center (pronounced HOR-ish) has served as the home of Kansas volleyball since its opening on Sept. 1, 1999. The $3.8 million project, which was funded by Stewart Horejsi and his family, was completed shortly after the conclusion of the 1998 volleyball season.

Located on the University of Kansas campus between the Wagnon Student-Athlete Center and Hoglund Ballpark just west of historic Allen Fieldhouse, the 16,500 square-foot facility seats 1,300 fans for Kansas volleyball matches.

Besides housing practice and competition courts for both volleyball and basketball, the Horejsi Center boasts the KU volleyball locker room, team room, concession stands and a ticket booth.

As part of a $55 million renovation and new construction project to Kansas Athletics facilities, construction began on the Horejsi Family Athletics Center at the conclusion of the 2008 volleyball season to add a visiting team locker room and officials room. Additional seating is also being added to increase the Horejsi Center's capacity to 2,000 patrons.

On Sept. 1, 1999, KU defeated UMKC, 3-1, in the first match inside the Horejsi Family Athletics Center. The official dedication ceremony was held prior to the Kansas-Auburn match on Sept. 11, 1999, during the Jayhawk Classic tournament.

"The Horejsi Family Athletics Center not only gives us top-notch practice courts, but it provides us with a court that makes home matches at KU an exciting event to be a part of," said KU head coach Ray Bechard.

KU volleyball players can hang out in the team room before and after games and practices.

Each player gets her own locker where the KU equipment staff has competition gear ready for practices and games.

In 10 seasons, the Kansas volleyball has gone 88-58 (.603 winning percentage) on its home court and has lost just six times to nonconference opponents during that span.

Coach Bechard and the Kansas Jayhawks are one of the most-watched volleyball teams in the nation and have ranked in the top 50 attendance leaders the past three seasons. In 2008, KU ranked 38th among Division I volleyball programs, averaging 975 fans per contest.

THE CITY OF LAWRENCE

LAWRENCE

Lawrence is not just another college community. It presents the easy-going feeling of a smaller town combined with big city cultural opportunities. A population of 90,000 that comes from widely diverse backgrounds makes Lawrence an outstanding place to live and raise a family.

A community that supports the University of Kansas with its heart and soul, Lawrence envelopes the students so they too think of Lawrence as their own hometown. Lawrence is well known for the arts, alternative music and downtown shops, galleries and restaurants.

About Lawrence

- Lawrence Population: 90,000
- Annual Average High Temperature: 66
- Annual Average Low Temperature: 43
- Annual Average Precipitation: 39"
- Lawrence is conveniently located on Interstate 70 45 miles west of Kansas City and 25 miles east of Topeka (state capital). Kansas Highway 10 connects Lawrence to the south Kansas City metroplex. Highway 59 serves as the city's north and south access, and Highway 40 runs parallel to Interstate 70 east and west.
- Lawrence was founded in 1854 by the New England Emigrant Aid Society in an effort to keep the territory free from slavery. It is said that it is one of the few cities in the United States founded strictly for political reasons.

- Both the Oregon and Sante Fe Trails run through parts of Lawrence and Douglas County.
- Lawrence streets are named after the states in the order they came into the Union, beginning with Delaware.
- Massachusetts was designated the "Main" street because Lawrence's founders were from Massachusetts.
- Frommer's 2007 edition of Cities Ranked & Rated pegged Lawrence as the 100th-best metropolitan area in the country to live.
- Lawrence festivals provide a wealth of musical offerings. Music is a staple in the Lawrence community. The sounds of local talent can be heard echoing through the city's streets both day and night.

Lawrence boasts a vibrant downtown, listed on the National Register of Historic Places, with a wide assortment of shops, galleries, eateries and historic architecture. Many have called Massachusetts Street one of the most beautiful main streets in America.

AREA ATTRACTIOnS

Kansas City, just 45 miles east of Lawrence, knows how to entertain visitors. After all, from its beginnings this city has a rich history of delighting travelers with flashy amusement parks and innovative shopping areas. Whether you are enjoying one of the many sporting events or watching a "hog" being assembled at the Harley-Davidson Final Assembly Plant, today's traveler will find a multitude of diverse and fun attractions.

Thrill-seekers of all ages love the side-by-side theme parks, Worlds of Fun and Oceans of Fun. For a wild time, head to the Kansas City Zoo where hundreds of exotic animals reside in their natural habitats.

The Kansas City Power & Light District is a vibrant, new eight-block neighborhood in the heart of downtown Kansas City with a combination of entertainment, retail, nightlife and residential areas. The many tastes, flavors and entertainment options of the District makes each visit an exciting experience.

The Truman Sports Complex is home to major league sports action for the Kansas City Chiefs and Royals at the side-by-side Arrowhead and Kauffman stadiums.

In Kansas City, Kan., just off I-70 sits the Community America Ballpark, home of the Kansas City Wizards Soccer Team, and the Kansas Speedway, which hosts NASCAR's premier series, the NEXTEL Cup Series. It also brings the superstars of the Indy Racing League's IndyCar Series for an exciting season of heart-pounding motorsports action.

No trip to Kansas City is complete without a visit to the Country Club Plaza. This 14-square-block outdoor shopping and entertainment district boasts romantic Spanish architecture, European art and dazzling fountains. Designed in 1922, the Plaza features boutiques and fashionable national stores as well as distinctive restaurants, outdoor cafés and nightlife hotspots.

The Big 12 Conference has established a consistent level of national success on the field and in the classroom as it enters its 14th season in 2009-10.

Since it began play in 1996-97, the Conference can boast of 34 team crowns and over 400 individual NCAA Championships. Over the past five seasons a total of 13 NCAA trophies have been hoisted by Big 12 institutions, with at least one national crown won in all but one year for the Conference, including each of the past 12 seasons.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

Big 12 student-athletes also do well in garnering national academic recognition. Sarah Pavan (Nebraska) was named Academic All-America of the Year in volleyball in 2006 and 2007 by ESPN The Magazine and College Sports Information Directors of America with a 4.0 grade-point average in Biochemistry. She also won the national academic honor presented for all sports in 2006-07 and was named recipient of the prestigious 2006-07 Honda-Broderick Award as Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year. She is the first athlete since the Big 12 was formed to earn the accolade. In its history, the conference has over 330 academic honorees, averaging more than 25 each season.

Competitive excellence, scholarship and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12 philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and Academic All-Big 12 squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons.

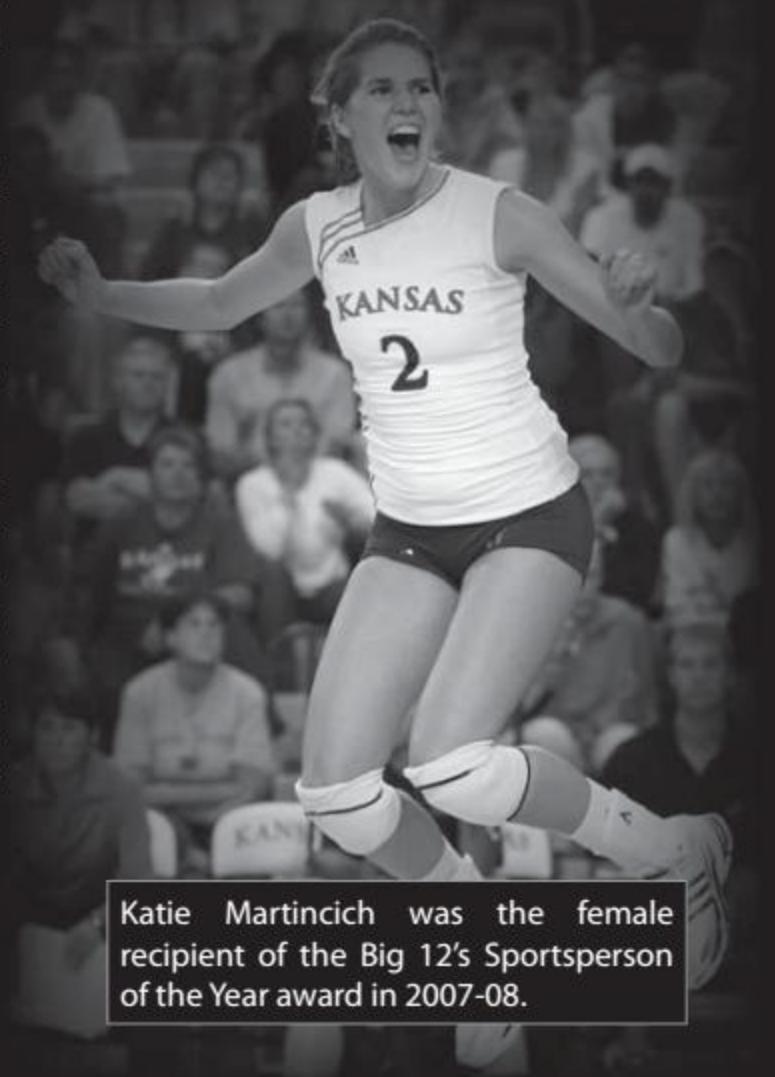

At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year awards. Kansas volleyball player Katie Martincich was the female recipient of the Sportsperson of the Year award for the 2007-08 academic year.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gault Postgraduate Scholarships at the end of each academic year. A total of 225 scholars have received over 1.3 million in postgraduate financial aid through the first 13 years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 21 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball.

The conference is made up of 12 institutions that have shared many traditional rivalries throughout their histories. Member schools include - Baylor University, University of Colorado, Iowa State University, University of Kansas, Kansas State University, University of Missouri, University of Nebraska, University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma State University, University of Texas, Texas A&M University and Texas Tech University.

The Big 12 staff administers to over 4,600 student-athletes in 21 sports. The conference office is headquartered in Irving, Texas.

Katie Martincich was the female recipient of the Big 12's Sportsperson of the Year award in 2007-08.

Big 12 Volleyball Highlights from 2008-09

- For the first time in league history, the Big 12 had two representatives, Nebraska and Texas, in the NCAA Championship semifinals. The conference also had three teams play in the regional finals for the first time -- Iowa State, Nebraska and Texas.
- Three Big 12 squads participated in NCAA Championship regional semifinal action for the third consecutive year.
- The Big 12 posted an 85-35 (.708) record against non-conference opponents.
- At least three Big 12 teams were ranked in the Bison/AVCA Top 25 Poll each week, including Nebraska and Texas, which was rated in the top 10 in every poll. The conference finished 2008 with four squads ranked, tying a season-high (preseason poll).

Each summer, Kansas Volleyball conducts camps for young players ranging from beginners to the high school level. In the 11 years under KU head coach Ray Bechard, the camps have experienced unprecedented success by selling out early in the spring. In 2009, nearly 1,000 volleyball players attended summer camp at the University of Kansas. Bechard and his assistant coaches, successful high school and club coaches, and members of the Kansas volleyball squad provide personalized direction for all camp participants.

Setting, Hitting & Defensive Specialist Clinics

Some unique features of Bechard's teaching methods are position-specific clinics which allow athletes to fine-tune their skills in a certain area. Athletes who are entering grades six through 12 receive instruction and training for an entire day as a setter, hitter or blocker. The clinics run from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. with one hour off for lunch.

Skills Camp

The emphasis of the four-day individual skills camp is to teach and develop the fundamental techniques of volleyball as well as game strategies. The basic skills are emphasized in drills while team play is incorporated to learn how all of the fundamentals fit into the game. Campers are evaluated in all skills and receive a camp notebook detailing the camp's training methods. This camp is open to athletes entering grades six through 12. Six or more athletes attending from the same school can be grouped together and play as a team. Each team plays the equivalent of 10 league and tournament matches. Each league is assigned a camp staff member to help facilitate all of the skills learned throughout the camp.

Team Camp

The Jayhawk Volleyball Team Camp is designed to provide varsity high school teams with the opportunity to train and compete under the direction and guidance of an outstanding coaching staff. The daily schedule includes two skills sessions focusing on position training and transition work. Competitive league play is the emphasis at each evening session. Team building activities highlight the last evening of camp.

Core Group of Returners Give 2009 Kansas Team a Solid Foundation

After losing only two starters over the last two seasons combined, the 2009 Jayhawks will be one of the most experienced teams in recent years. Five starters return on a team which features four seniors and an equal number of juniors on its roster. The Jayhawks bring back 11 letterwinners overall, including top offensive threat Karina Garlington, a junior, and 2008 Big 12 All-Freshman Team selection Nicole Tate.

Entering his 12th year, Ray Bechard and his staff are forced to replace graduated middle blockers Savannah Noyes and Natalie Uhrt, but will have a veteran staff to fill the void in seniors Brittany Williams, who started 26 matches in 2008, and Paige Mazour. Returning starters Katie Martincich, a senior setter turned defensive specialist, as well as third-year libero Melissa Manda also return to the mix.

One year since playing 10 matches versus NCAA Tournament teams, Kansas will once again face a daunting schedule in 2009 as six Jayhawk opponents made it to the 64-team field last season, including semifinal participants and Big 12 Conference foes Nebraska and Texas.

Outside Hitters

The outside hitter position will feature some of the most experience on the floor. With starter Karina Garlington, the team's top offensive threat from a year ago, along with returners Jenna Kaiser, Allison Mayfield and Lauren Hagan, it is a very capable group.

"At times, Karina was as good as anybody in the country last season," said Bechard. "This year, we're going to be asking her to do a lot more things to become an effective six-rotation player."

Kaiser was hampered early in the year with an injury but rounded back into form late in the season. She made her debut in the second conference game of the year and went on to record the team's second-best kill average in Big 12 action with 2.32 kills per set. The six-foot hitter will be a key player to Kansas' 2009 attack and fans should expect to see more glimpses of what she did in her freshman campaign, when she led the team with 2.86 kps.

Mayfield filled in nicely for the injured Kaiser at the beginning of the season last year and should continue to improve with the confidence she gained during her inaugural season as a Jayhawk, playing in 27 matches. Hagan was limited in playing time last year as a freshman but has improved her physical strength in the offseason and will continue to add depth to the outside hitter position.

Middle Blockers

The middle blocker position is the only spot vacated by a starter but seniors Paige Mazour and Brittany Williams are seasoned veterans ready to make their final season a memorable one.

Mazour, who has been extremely successful off the court earning Academic All-Big 12 First Team honors last season, had limited playing time in her first two years. Last year she made a tremendous leap in her junior campaign appearing in 24 matches and pacing the team with 0.94 blocks per set during nonconference action. The 6-1 blocker has continued to make strides during the offseason, a feat that has not gone unnoticed by the coaching staff.

"Paige has done a lot for her strength and conditioning over the past year," Bechard stated. "We really think she is ready to be an effective middle player for the team this fall and we're excited to see what she does with the opportunity."

Williams is capable of playing at a very high level, but it is a level she struggled to maintain last year since coming back from a torn ACL, despite starting 26 matches.

"I know Brittany did not have the kind of season she wanted last fall," said Bechard. "However, with all of her post-injury apprehensions behind her, she should prove to be a highly competitive threat from the middle in her last go-around on the court."

Senior Brittany Williams is a returning starter from last season.

New additions to the middle blocker position include incoming freshman Catherine Carmichael, Tayler Tolefree and Caroline Jarmoc.

Relatively new to the sport of volleyball, Carmichael is an extremely hard-working player who is very coachable and one of the more athletic players to join the team in quite some time. Similarly, Tolefree is another athletic addition to the team and one that continues to improve her volleyball knowledge with her diligent work ethic. Jarmoc brings a great combination of size and athleticism to KU and will also have an opportunity to contribute to the team right away.

Setters

2008 Big 12 All-Freshman Team selection Nicole Tate returns at setter for the Jayhawks in 2009. During her first year at KU, the 5-10 Tate finished fifth in the Big 12 averaging 9.99 assists per set.

"So much was thrown at Nicole last year as a freshman," said Bechard. "But she managed everything so well. Now that she has that year of experience under her belt I think she will really make a huge improvement this fall."

Also able to fill in at the setter position is fifth-year senior Katie Martincich. After spending her first two seasons as a setter, in which she amassed over 1,800 assists and currently ranks seventh on KU's career assist list, Martincich made the transition to a defensive specialist in 2008. She will likely see the bulk of her playing time in the back row once again, but her setter background could prove helpful in critical situations and give the Jayhawks the option of using a two-setter system.

Defensive Specialist/Libero

Just like last season, there will be plenty of competition in the KU back row, which will be a highly experienced group with a lot of depth.

Holding down the defensive line will be libero Melissa Manda. The 5-9 junior has appeared in every game of her career and is currently second on the Kansas career list with 3.66 digs per set.

Also returning for the KU back row are Martincich, Melissa Grieb, and Me1 Townsend, while newcomer Morgan Boub will round out the defensive specialists.

"Katie made the move to defensive specialist last year and is lot more comfortable in that position now," Bechard said. "She brings such a great energy and concentration level to the team. We play our best volleyball when she is on the floor."

Grieb is in her final go-round and all indications point to a solid senior campaign for the 5-9 defensive specialist, who has played every game of her career and was second on the team in 2008 with 2.29 digs per set. Grieb also possesses a dangerous jump serve, a skill that has come in handy in crucial situations.

Despite being slowed down by an injury last fall, Townsend has done a good job increasing her range during the offseason, which could equal more floor time in 2009 as she will battle for time in the back row.

Boub adds another exciting element to the mix. The 5-8 defensive player is a talented service reception player who will provide depth in the back court.

Junior Karina Garlington (left) is the team's top returning offensive threat from 2008, while Melissa Manda (right) has been KU's starting libero the past two seasons.

Setter Nicole Tate was a Big 12 All-Freshman Team selection last season.

12th season at Kansas / Fort Hays State, 1980

Through 11 seasons as head coach of the University of Kansas volleyball program, Ray Bechard has taken the Kansas program to new heights since his arrival in Lawrence prior to the 1998 season. Some of his biggest accomplishments include:

10

SELECTIONS

The Sunflower State native has established himself as the program's winningest and longest-serving coach. Bechard has also compiled a remarkable all-time coaching record of 890-220 (.802 winning percentage) since arriving on the coaching scene 24 years ago as the head coach at Barton Community College in Great Bend, Kan.

Entering his 12th season at KU, Bechard has led the Jayhawks to a 174-160 mark, three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances, from 2003-05, and seven seasons at .500 or better. Additionally, Bechard has brought renewed interest in Kansas volleyball as the Jayhawks have consistently finished among the nation's top 50 attendance leaders the last several years.

Bechard's teams have also excelled off the court. A total of 59 Jayhawks have received Academic All-Big 12 honors since his arrival at KU in 1998, while 23 of his student-athletes were recognized as Academic All-Americans at Barton County.

Most recently, a league-leading seven Jayhawks were named to the Academic All-Big 12 Volleyball Team in fall 2008. The team registered a 3.35 cumulative grade point average, the second-highest mark among Kansas athletic teams. The squad then boasted Kansas' highest team GPA for spring 2009 with an impressive 3.32 cumulative GPA.

His team also enjoyed national recognition when Karina Garlington was named the school's second AVCA National Player of the Week on Nov. 10. Garlington was selected to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District Third Team, the sixth academic all-district honoree during Bechard's tenure, while Nicole Tate earned Big 12 All-Freshman team honors.

Last season, Bechard's team finished with its most home court victories (six) and most Big 12 wins (seven) since 2005, while also recording its longest home court win streak (four matches) since 2004.

During the 2007 season, Bechard and his team enjoyed a 3-2 upset over No. 18 Oklahoma, the sixth-straight season KU upset a ranked team, and a four-game victory against tournament-bound Missouri State, which made Bechard the winningest coach in KU volleyball history. The Jayhawks also picked up a win at Missouri, marking its first road win in Columbia since 2001.

The 2007 season saw the graduation of senior standout Emily Brown. Brown left her name littered all over the KU record books as she became the first Jayhawk to reach the 1,000 milestone in kills, digs and assists, while also landing on five top 10 career lists.

Three seasons ago, in 2006, KU picked up a Preseason Big 12 Newcomer of the Year selection in Natalie Uhart. Uhart later suffered a season-ending injury prior to the team's first contest and that seemed to set the tone for the year as the Jayhawks were hampered with injuries over the course of the season.

Even with the injuries, Bechard and his squad took an impressive 7-2 mark into conference play before finishing the season 10-19 overall and graduating five seniors.

The team collected several accomplishments during the season including a tournament title at Temple to start off the year. In addition, the team dug up 15.81 balls per game, its highest dig average since the 2001 season and third-highest average in Bechard's 11 year stint.

Just one year earlier in 2005, Bechard led the Jayhawks to a 15-15 overall record and their third-straight postseason appearance. Despite a depleted roster due to injuries, KU battled No. 16 UCLA to four games in Los Angeles in the NCAA Tournament First Round.

The 2005 season also saw the careers of three talented seniors, Josi Lima, Paula Caten and Andi Rozum, come to a close. Caten became KU's first Academic All-American in volleyball, while Lima, KU's only four-time All-Big 12 First Team selection, finished her career as the Jayhawks' all-time kills leader and one of the most prolific volleyball players in school history. Rozum's name still sits at the top of the career assists list.

In addition to his team's achievements and the individual successes of his seniors, Bechard reached a significant milestone on Sept. 10, 2005, when he coached his 1,000th career match. The Jayhawks commemorated the milestone by defeating visiting Michigan State, 3-0.

In 2004, KU returned to the NCAA Tournament for the second-straight season and fell just short of a Sweet 16 appearance. The Jayhawks defeated Santa Clara, 3-1, before falling to host Washington, 3-2, in second-round action. KU came back from a two-game deficit to battle the Huskies, who advanced to the Final Four in Long Beach, Calif., and won the National Championship in 2005.

In addition to the Jayhawks' return to the postseason, KU enjoyed its first national ranking on Sept. 13 when Kansas came in at No. 24 in the USA Today/CSTV Top 25 Coaches Poll. A week later, Kansas reached its highest national ranking sitting at No. 21 in the poll.

The 2003 season became another celebrated year as KU achieved the most victories since 1991 (22) and the fourth most in program history, the most conference wins in school history (13) and the highest finish in the conference race (tied for third) since joining the Big 12 in 1996.

The greatest highlight of the 2003 season came when Bechard and the Jayhawks were invited to participate in the NCAA Tournament for the first time in program history. KU shocked powerhouse Long Beach State by sweeping the 49ers 3-0 in first-round action before falling to host No. 4 Pepperdine 3-1 in the NCAA Second Round in Malibu, Calif.

Bechard also reached two significant coaching milestones in 2003 as he recorded his 800th career victory and 100th win at Kansas.

Since his arrival at KU over a decade ago, Bechard's teams have been making their mark in the KU record books, sitting atop numerous career lists. Bechard has helped develop the play of several standout players, including Lima, who took home All-Big 12 First Team honors all four years as well as the 2002 Big 12 Newcomer of the Year award as a freshman. Lima, KU's all-time kills leader (1,483), joined middle blocker Amanda Reves (1996-99) as the two players to earn first-team league honors under Bechard. Lima also became the first player in KU history to be named to the American Volleyball Coaches Association All-Region Team in 2003.

Katie Martinich was named the Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year for the 2007-08 academic year and Jennifer Kraft (1999-2002) earned the Big 12 Defensive Specialist award in 2002, while Ashley Michaels (2001-04) was an All-Big 12 Honorable Mention selection for two straight years.

Jill Dorsey, a 2004 graduate, led the Big 12 in her senior season with a scorching 4.64 digs per game and left KU the all-time career digs leader (1,338). Michaels concluded her KU career as the program's leader in attack percentage (.317) and finished second behind Reves in block assists (324) and blocks per game (1.03).

Another athlete to leave her name at the top of many KU career lists was Sarah Rome (2000-03). Rome departed KU as the school's all-time attempts leader (3,593) and ranks second in career kills (1,306) and third in career digs (1,177).

Bechard came to KU after spending 13 years as the head coach at Barton County Community College in Great Bend, Kan. After a stellar coaching career at BCCC, Bechard was inducted into the National Junior College Athletic Association Volleyball Hall of Fame in 1998.

In 13 seasons at Barton County, Bechard posted a career record of 716-60 (.923 winning percentage). He completed his career at BCCC with the highest all-time winning percentage among junior college/community college coaches and ranked fourth all-time with 716 career wins.

Twice (1990 and 1993) Bechard was named the American Volleyball Coaches Association National Junior College Coach of the Year, and he was selected the AVCA District IV Coach of the Year 12 times.

In 1995, he was an assistant coach for the USA Volleyball Youth National Team which won the Slovakian Cup Championship in Zilina, Slovakia. Bechard, who was the only non-Division I coach on the staff, coached alongside TCU's Sandy Troutt and Penn State assistant Erin Tomblin. The team competed against youth teams from Poland and Slovakia.

Bechard began his coaching career when he served three years (1980-83) as the head coach of the girls' volleyball team and the boys' basketball team at Lewis High School in Lewis, Kan. The first sign of his coaching talent was evident as he directed LHS to a pair of conference titles on the volleyball court.

A member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association, Bechard was voted president-elect for 2009 and in 2010 he will take over as president of the organization. He was also a member of the board of directors of the AVCA from 1992-98 and has presented at the AVCA National Convention on two different occasions. Bechard was also president of the NJCAA Volleyball Coaches Association from 1989-92.

A native of Grinnell, Kan., Bechard played basketball at Barton County, where he helped the Cougars to a 45-13 record in his two seasons there.

Following his junior college playing career, Bechard attended Fort Hays State University where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1980. Two years later, he received his master's degree in physical education from Fort Hays State.

The Kansas native is married to the former Pamela Brown. The couple has a daughter, Ashley, who was a KU letterwinner in volleyball from 2001-04, and a son, Brennan, who played on the Kansas men's basketball team from 2007-09.

Long time assistant Christi Posey returns for her 10th season with coach Ray Bechard's volleyball staff. A native of Wichita, Kan., and a KU alum, Posey returned to Lawrence to join the Kansas Athletics family on June 1, 2000.

Posey serves in a variety of roles for the Jayhawks, including the team's recruiting coordinator, overseeing the team's managers, team room, camp administration and acting as a liaison between the team and its sports psychologist, nutritionist, promotions and the weight room. On the court, she works with the team's setters and defensive specialists.

Last season, Posey helped develop the play of setter Nicole Tate, who was named to the All-Big 12 Freshman Team. Just one year earlier, Melissa Manda worked under Posey as a defensive specialist en route to recording KU's fourth-most single season digs with 449.

Posey also worked with Andi Rozum from 2002-05 as Rozum became Kansas' all-time leader in assists. In 2002, Kansas' Jennifer Kraft was named Big 12 Defensive Specialist of the Year. Prior to that, Molly LaMere, who holds the school record for single season assists per game, earned All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades in 2001.

Prior to her arrival at Kansas, Posey served as a health/physical education instructor and head volleyball coach at Blue Valley Northwest High School in Overland Park, Kan., from 1993 to 2000. During that time, Posey was also the head basketball and assistant softball coach for the Huskies. During the spring of 2008, Posey was honored by the high school as she was named a member of its inaugural Husky Hall of Fame class.

As the head volleyball coach for Blue Valley Northwest, she led her teams to eight KSHSAA state tournaments in eight seasons. Under Posey's guidance, her teams captured the state championship in 1996 and 1997 and finished third three times during her tenure.

Posey's accolades and honors as a high school coach are virtually unparalleled. In 1999, she was named Johnson County Volleyball Coach of the Year by the Kansas City Star. In 1997, she was selected as the Coach of the Year by the Kansas Volleyball Association and Kansas Sport Magazine after leading her team to a perfect 44-0 record and a second-straight KSHSAA state championship. That same season, Blue Valley Northwest was tabbed the Kansas 6A Volleyball Program of the Year by the Kansas Volleyball Association.

In 1996, Posey was again named Coach of the Year by Kansas Sport Magazine and Sports Connection after guiding her team to a 41-3 record and a first-place finish at the state tournament.

Before her stint at Blue Valley Northwest, Posey was the head coach at Halstead (Kan.) High School from 1983-90. In 1990, she was selected to serve as head coach at the Kansas Volleyball Association's annual All-Star Game after being named co-Coach of the Year by the KVA. Her teams qualified for the state tournament four times at Halstead, and she led the Dragons to a third-place finish in 1990. She has an overall high school coaching mark of 392-171 in 18 years.

Posey is a member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association, the Kansas Coaches Association, the Kansas Volleyball Association and the National Education Association.

Posey lettered in both volleyball and softball at Wichita State as a freshman and sophomore before transferring to the University of Kansas for her final two years of eligibility, where she was a standout first baseman and outfielder for the KU softball team.

A graduate of Wichita Heights High School, Posey was a three-sport star for the Falcons in volleyball, basketball and softball. She earned all-league honors twice in volleyball and once in softball and led the Falcons to a state basketball runner-up finish in 1976.

Posey is well known at volleyball camps and clinics at the collegiate and high school levels around the midwest. She has worked top-level camps across the state, including the University of Kansas, Sport-2-Sport, Heart of America Fundamental Volleyball and Gateway Elite camps.

Posey serves as Club Director of the USAV Juniors' Team KC, which she previously coached for seven years.

Posey received a bachelor of science degree in education from the University of Kansas in 1982 where she was a physical education major and health education minor.

Ken Murczek enters his second season as a Kansas volleyball assistant coach. He joined the KU volleyball staff in March 2008, after spending the 2007 season as an assistant at the University of Virginia. A Chicago, Ill., native, Murczek works with the Jayhawks' outside hitters and is also responsible for team travel, video editing and assisting with recruitment.

In his first season working with Kansas' front row players, outside hitter Karina Garlington was named ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District and finished fifth in the Big 12 averaging 3.66 kills per set. Garlington also earned AVCA National and Big 12 Offensive player of the week awards.

While working at Virginia, Murczek was responsible for training the Cavaliers' outside hitters and helped develop hitter Sarah Kirkwood into a two-time AVCA All-American, the first player to do so in Virginia volleyball history. In the summer of 2007, Murczek also spent time at the Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs, Colo., where he assisted with skill development and on-court training of the United States Women's National Volleyball Team.

In addition to his stint at Virginia, Murczek has also served as an assistant at Western Michigan (2005-06) and a volunteer assistant at Purdue (2004). At Western Michigan, Murczek was instrumental in the daily training of the setters, recruiting and served as the director of the Bronco Volleyball Summer Camp. Over the two-year span, Murczek helped guide six all-conference players and aided in the Broncos receiving the highest honorable mention award for the 2006 recruiting class according to prepvolleyball.com. In addition, Murczek was integral in the development of senior setter Jenifer Sulewski, who broke the school record for single-season assists.

In his stint at Purdue, he helped the Boilermakers to their first NCAA Tournament berth in 14 years and first-round upset over nationally-ranked host Colorado State.

During the 2002 and 2003 seasons, Murczek was head coach at Division II St. Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Ind. In his first year, the Panthers doubled their league win total and advanced to the conference tournament for the first time in three years. Murczek also spent a season at the helm at Cuyamaca College, a community college in San Diego, where he guided the team to its first conference tournament bid in school history.

Aside from his coaching experience at the collegiate level, Murczek has also spent time coaching both high school and club volleyball in San Diego, Chicago and Kalamazoo, Mich.

A successful player at all levels, Murczek began his volleyball career at Marist High School in Chicago where he became an all-state selection in 1993. Following high school, Murczek played for Lewis University before transferring to Division I San Diego State, where his team received top 15 votes during his senior season. Murczek also finished ranked fifth in the country in digs per game. He then went on to the University of Arizona where his club volleyball team won back-to-back national championships.

After college, Murczek played four seasons of professional six person indoor volleyball in Gelterkinden, Switzerland; Biendenkopf, Germany; Niort, France and Bandung, Indonesia. He has also competed in several beach volleyball tournaments during the summer months throughout the United States.

Murczek earned his B.S. in kinesiology from San Diego State University in 1998 before going on to earn a master's in teaching and teacher education from the University of Arizona in 2000. Murczek also holds a secondary education teaching credential in physical education and science from the state of Indiana, and an M.S. in sport management from Western Michigan University (2007).

Murczek and his wife, Jennifer, married in August 2007.

A native of Jefferson City, Mo., Kevin Buhr returns for his second season as a volunteer assistant for the KU volleyball team.

Buhr came to Lawrence after serving as the head coach for the Lightning Volleyball Club in Eagle, Colo., from 2006-08. While at the head of the Lightning's program, Buhr led his 17's team to four first-place finishes in six tournaments in 2007.

Before moving to the Rockies, where he also worked as a ski instructor for five years, Buhr worked as an assistant coach for the women's volleyball team at Division III Millsaps College in Jackson, Miss., for the 2005 season.

Prior to his stint at Millsaps, Buhr served as a volunteer assistant for his alma mater Missouri State University in Springfield, Mo., from 2000-03.

In addition to his experience coaching at the collegiate level, Buhr was the head freshman volleyball coach at Glendale High School in Springfield, Mo., and has frequented the college volleyball summer camp circuit working for Division I programs such as Florida State, Alabama and Colorado State.

Buhr earned a bachelor's degree in education with a major in physical education from Missouri State in 2003.

Buhr resides in Lawrence with his wife, Emily.

Jim Marchiony has served as Associate Athletics Director for External Relations at Kansas since August 2003. He oversees Kansas Athletics marketing, licensing, the media relations and video departments, and is the sport supervisor for volleyball and tennis.

Marchiony came to Lawrence from the University of Connecticut, where he served as Associate Athletics Director for External Relations. His primary duties at UConn involved television and radio, marketing, corporate sponsorships, licensing and sports communications.

Prior to his stint at UConn, Marchiony spent 17 1/2 years at the NCAA, serving the last five years as media coordinator for the NCAA Division I men's basketball tournament. Before serving as media coordinator, Marchiony served in various communications roles, primarily dealing with television and media relations.

Prior to serving at the NCAA, Marchiony was Director of Sports Information at Georgetown University and Iona College. He earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from St. Bonaventure University.

Marchiony is married to Mary Beth Marchiony (Associate Director, Academic and Career Counseling). The couple resides in Lawrence with their son Donald, who graduated from KU in 2009.

Aimee Miyazawa enters her fifth season as a member of the Kansas Athletics training staff where she is responsible for the prevention, care, rehabilitation and maintenance of team injuries and illnesses.

In addition to her duties at KU, Miyazawa spent time in June 2009 at the Olympic Training Center in Chula Vista, Calif., working for the USOC Volunteer Medical Program. Miyazawa spent time working with a variety of different athletes including those in sprint kayak, BMX, cycling, archery and speed skating. Also, during summer 2008 Miyazawa served as a trainer for the USA national men's volleyball team, which won the gold medal in the Pan-American Cup.

Miyazawa came to the Jayhawk program after serving a fellowship with the United States Olympic Committee in Colorado Springs, Colo., during the 2004-05 academic year.

While at the Olympic Training Center, Miyazawa worked primarily with the women's volleyball, weightlifting and men's freestyle wrestling national teams. Her travels with the women's volleyball national team took her to China, Korea, Thailand and the Dominican Republic.

Prior to her stint in Colorado Springs, Miyazawa spent two years as a graduate assistant trainer at the University of Nebraska at Kearney, where she worked with volleyball and indoor/outdoor track and field.

Miyazawa graduated from the University of Northern Colorado in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and went on to receive a master's in physical education from Nebraska-Kearney in August 2004.

Debbie Van Saun joined the Kansas Athletics staff as an Associate Athletics Director and Senior Woman Administrator in August 2007.

At Kansas, Van Saun directly supervises selected sports and provides administrative guidance to those coaches and their programs. Those sports include rowing, men's golf, women's golf and swimming and diving. She works closely with student-athletes regarding financial aid, housing, summer school, fifth-year aid and other pertinent areas. It is Van Saun's job to monitor Kansas Athletics' efforts to comply with Title IX and NCAA gender equity principles as well as monitor NCAA governance issues and coordinate the University's position on new NCAA legislation. Lastly, she also prepares financial aid budget reports for the Athletics Director.

Van Saun came to KU from the City of Lawrence, where she served in numerous positions including assistant city manager, assistant utilities director, assistant finance director and collections supervisor. Her roles with the city date back to 1979 and concluded when she came to KU in the fall of 2007.

Van Saun's husband, Paul, played varsity football for KU in the 1970's and now owns Van Saun Decorating Service in Lawrence. Together they have two adult children, Kristen Van Saun Toner and Joseph.

Bernadette Gray-Little

Chancellor

Lew Perkins

Director of Kansas Athletics

A highly regarded scholar, teacher and university leader, Bernadette Gray-Little began her tenure as the 17th chancellor of the University of Kansas on August 15, 2009. As KU chancellor, Gray-Little is the chief executive officer of the university, overseeing campuses in Lawrence, Kansas City, Overland Park and Wichita in addition to research and educational centers in Topeka, Hutchinson, Parsons and elsewhere in the state. She succeeds Robert Hemenway, who served as KU chancellor for 14 years.

Chancellor Gray-Little previously was executive vice chancellor and provost from 2006 to 2009 at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. A professor of psychology, Gray-Little rose to the post of UNC's chief academic officer after successive administrative appointments, including dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, executive associate provost, senior associate dean for undergraduate education for the college, and chair of the Department of Psychology. In these roles, she earned a reputation as a superb fundraiser, a relationship builder, a strong advocate for faculty and for research, and a champion for the highest quality educational experience for students.

A native of eastern North Carolina, Gray-Little received her bachelor's degree from Marywood College in Scranton, Pa., and her master's and doctoral degrees in psychology from St. Louis University. Her postdoctoral research in cross-cultural psychology was funded by a fellowship from the Fulbright Foundation for study in Denmark. She has also been a Social Science Research Council Fellow and a recipient of a Ford Foundation Senior Scholar Fellowship through the National Research Council.

Her research falls primarily into three areas, two of which reflect a continuing interest in the relation of social and cultural factors to personality and psychopathology. First, she has studied the relevance of the client and clinician's ethnic/racial membership to the diagnosis and treatment of psychological disorder. The second area concerns the social determinants of self-esteem and is manifest in research on factors associated with self-esteem in children and adolescents of varied ethnic groups. In a third area of research she has explored the association of relationship satisfaction to the decision-making and influence strategies used by couples in intimate relationships.

Gray-Little is married to Shade Key Little, who was assistant dean for academic support services at UNC. They have two adult children and one grandchild.

Lew Perkins has served as Director of Athletics at the University of Kansas since June 2003. He arrived at KU after achieving nationally recognized success as athletics director at the University of Connecticut.

That success has continued at KU. In the summer of 2008 Perkins topped the public voting in TIME Magazine's online poll of the best sports executives in the world. He was the only college sports administrator to make TIME's list of 35 individuals, which includes team owners, team managers, league commissioners and other executives from around the world.

Kansas Athletics has experienced tremendous growth and success during Perkins' tenure.

Student-athletes have excelled in athletic programs in conference and national play, bringing home conference titles, bowl games and national championships under Perkins' leadership. Success can also be found in the classroom, with student-athletes setting new records for academic excellence.

Kansas Athletics fundraising has reached unprecedented levels, resulting in greater services for student-athletes, coaches and numerous upgrades in KU's athletics facilities. Under Perkins, Kansas Athletics' $27-million budget has grown to more than $55 million.

Perkins has 41 years experience in college athletics and is one of the most respected athletics directors in the country. A native of Chelsea, Mass., Perkins was inducted into his high school Hall of Fame in 1989. A highly recruited basketball player, he played at the University of Iowa (1965-67). Perkins earned his undergraduate degree there in 1967. He obtained his master's degree in education (1975) from the University of South Carolina and received an honorary Doctor of Education degree at USC Aiken in May 2005.

Perkins has served on many NCAA, Big 12 Conference and other prestigious committees, including the Basketball Issues Committee. At the conference level, Perkins has served as Chair of the Big 12 Board of Athletics Directors and as a member of the Big 12 Television Committee. In spring 2005 he was named to the Board of Directors of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame.

He and his wife Gwen have been married 41 years. Their daughter Amy and her husband Brandon Macneill, Executive Associate Athletic Director at Tulane University, are parents to Caroline and Alexandra. Daughter Holly, obtained her juris doctorate from the University of Kansas School of Law and is an associate at Polsinelli Shughart in Kansas City.

Lew and Gwen are committed to the well-being of all student-athletes, coaches and staff, and are proud to call Kansas home.

2008 REVIEW

Kansas volleyball once again tackled a challenging schedule in 2008. KU played 10 of its 29 matches against teams that advanced to the NCAA Tournament. Two of Kansas' opponents, Texas and Nebraska, made it all the way to the final four.

With six returning starters from a year ago and 11 letterwinners back, Kansas kicked off the year in Richmond, Va., where it got its first sampling of new rule changes implemented in the 2008 season. No longer would matches consist of games, they were called sets. And instead of playing the first four sets to 30 points, each set was to be played to 25 points with the fifth set still to 15.

At its season opener in the VCU Tournament, Kansas split its first two matches. The Jayhawks then finished second during their own Jayhawk Invitational, with their lone loss to then-No. 13 Oregon, an eventual NCAA Tournament participant. KU wrapped up its tournament portion of the schedule at Wyoming, again posting a 2-1 record.

After three early season tournaments, the Jayhawks took a 6-3 record into one of the toughest conferences in the country. Though Kansas struggled on the road, it earned a respectable 6-4 mark in the Horejsi Family Athletics Center to help earn its most Big 12 victories since 2005, going 7-13 during league play in 2008.

In its second Big 12 match of the season, Kansas recorded an impressive 3-2 come-from-behind victory against Iowa State on Sept. 20. Outside hitter Karina Garlington powered the Jayhawks' comeback recording 29 kills in the effort, the most kills by a KU player since 2000.

KU then hit a rough patch in the schedule playing three straight contests against Top 25 teams in No. 2 Nebraska, No. 3 Texas and No. 17 Kansas State. Despite suffering losses, KU was able to extend its match against all three opponents, even picking up its first set win at Nebraska in a decade and taking K-State to five sets in front of a sellout crowd in Lawrence.

The Jayhawks bounced back with their first road win in Big 12 play at Texas Tech and later picked up a notable win against Border Showdown rival Missouri in late October. Four KU players recorded career digs in the performance as the team combined for 92 digs versus the Tigers, just 13 shy of a Horejsi Center record.

In November, Kansas picked up a pair of sweeps against Colorado and Texas Tech for the team's first back-to-back 3-0 wins in Big 12 play since 2004. KU wrapped up its home schedule with an exciting 3-1 win against Baylor on senior night on Nov. 26.

Off the court, the Jayhawks were especially successfully. A league-leading seven KU players were named to the 2008 Academic All-Big 12 Volleyball Team, the most Jayhawks since 1997. Katie Martincich and Paige Mazour, who were two of just five Big 12 volleyball players with 4.0 GPAs, were joined on the first team by Garlington, Melissa Grieb, Melissa Manda and Savannah Noyes. Natalie Uhart was named to the second team.

Additionally, Garlington became the fifth Jayhawk in program history to earn academic all-district honors after being named ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District Third Team to cap her successful sophomore season.

Accomplishments from the 2008 season:

- Kansas finished 13-16 overall, the 10th time the Jayhawks have finished with 13 or more wins under head coach Ray Bechard.
- The team played 10 matches versus opponents that made it into the NCAA Tournament, including two of which competed in the semifinals (Nebraska and Texas).
- KU recorded its most Big 12 victories since 2005 (7).
- The Jayhawks had their longest home winning streak in conference play- four matches-since 2004.
- Kansas recorded its first senior night victory since 2004.
- The team tied for eighth in the Big 12 standings after being picked to finish 10th in the league coaches' preseason poll.
- At Nebraska on Sept. 24, KU won its first set in Lincoln since 1998.
- Kansas recorded back-to-back sweeps in Big 12 play for the first time since 2004.

Kansas graduated two seniors in 2008- Savannah Noyes (#18) and Natalie Uhart (#9).

Attendance Leaders

Once again, Kansas volleyball was among the nation's leaders in home attendance. The Jayhawks finished 38th in the country averaging 975 fans per contest at the Horejsi Family Athletics Center in 2008.

Garlington Honored as Academic All-District Selection

Outside hitter Karina Garlington was named ESPN The Magazine Third Team Academic All-District in 2008 after earning a 3.61 cumulative grade point average working toward a degree in sports management. The 6-0 attacker was KU's most consistent threat at the net last season as she led the team with 3.66 kills per set, fifth in the Big 12 Conference. Garlington also led the team with 0.30 services aces per set.

Tate Named to Big 12 All-Freshman Team

Setter Nicole Tate was one of six players named to the Big 12 All-Freshman Team. Tate started all 29 matches for Kansas and finished the regular season ranked fifth among Big 12 setters with just under 10 assists per set. The St. Louis, Mo., native also led the team with 11 double-doubles on the season.

Seven Jayhawks Awarded Academic All-Big 12

A league-leading seven KU volleyball players were named to the 2008 Academic All-Big 12 Volleyball Team. Katie Martincich and Paige Mazour were two of just five nominees honored with a 4.0 grade point average. Also earning first team honors were Karina Garlington, Melissa Grieb, Melissa Manda and Savannah Noyes. Natalie Uhart was named to the second team.

Garlington Named AVCA National Player of the Week

Karina Garlington was selected as the Sports Imports/American Volleyball Coaches Association Division I National Player of the Week on Nov. 11 after hitting .354 and averaging 5.0 kills, 1.67 digs and 5.75 points per set in helping the Jayhawks to two wins. Garlington was the second athlete from Kansas to be named Sports Imports/AVCA Division I National Player of the Week. The other Jayhawk to receive the honor was Josi Lima on Sept. 19, 2005.

Garlington and Tate Earn Big 12 Weekly Honors

In addition to her national player of the week award, Karina Garlington was also named the Big 12 Volleyball Offensive Player of the Week, while teammate Nicole Tate earned rookie of the week honors for matches Nov. 3-9. The pair became just the eighth and ninth Jayhawks to be named Big 12 volleyball players of the week.

Garlington's Career Kills

On Sept. 20, Karina Garlington tallied a career-high 29 kills versus Iowa State, the most kills by a Jayhawk since Amy Myatt had 34 on Oct. 7, 2000, and the most by a Big 12 player during the 2008 season.

All-Tournament Honors

Karina Garlington was named to three all-tournament teams in 2008, including the VCU Invitational, Jayhawk Invite and Cowgirl Classic. Teammate Natalie Uhart was an all-tournament team selection for the Jayhawk Invite and Cowgirl Classic.

Important Rule Changes For 2008

Terminology - The term "game" was changed to "set". A match still consists of the best three out of five sets.

Points Required to Win a Set - Instead of 30 points, the number of points needed to win sets one through four became 25 (and a two-point lead). Fifteen points (and a two-point lead) is still the requirement to win the fifth (deciding) set.

Substitutions - Each team is now allowed a maximum of 12 substitutions per set.

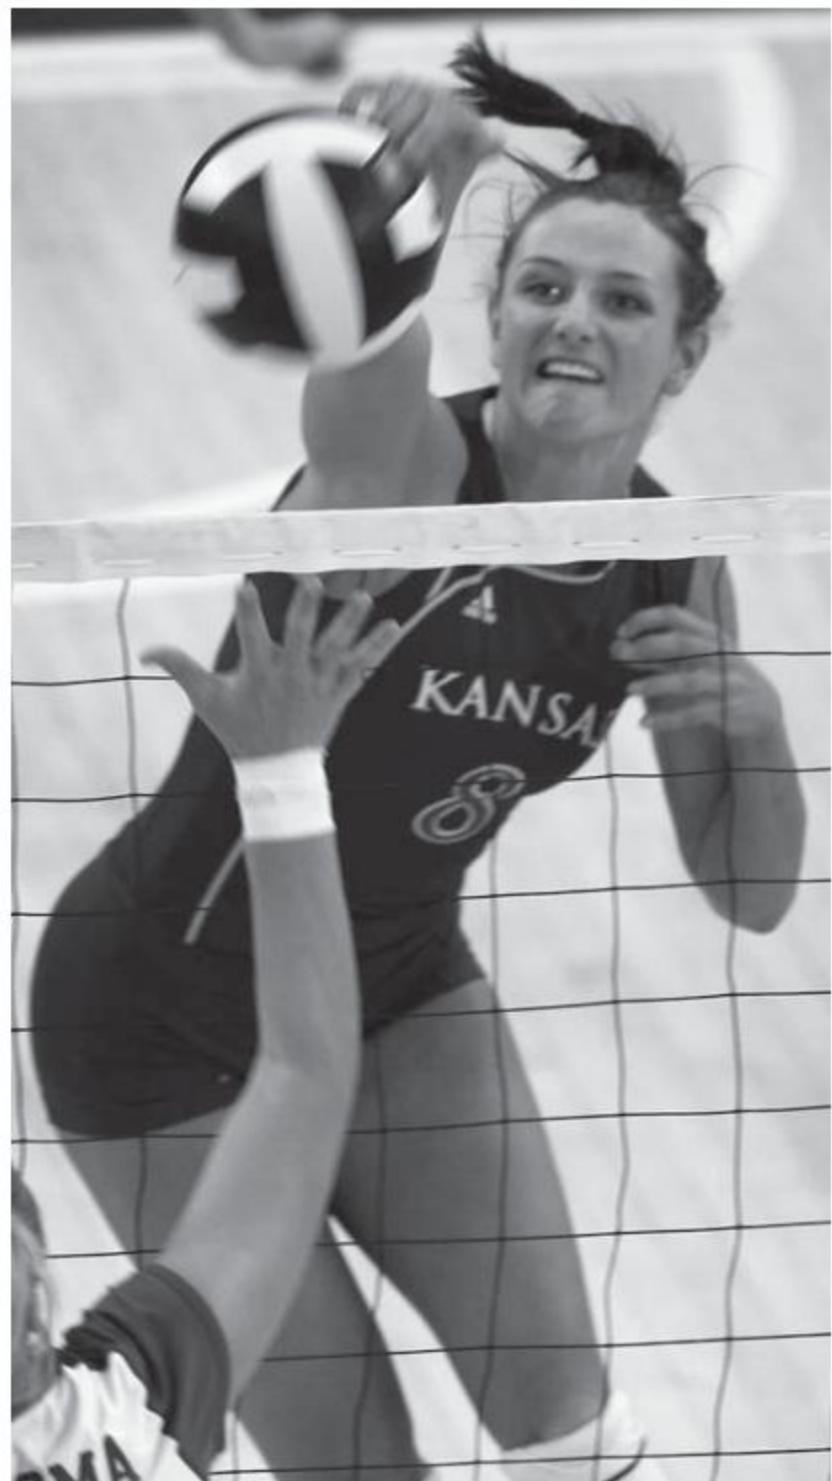

Points of Emphasis:

Ball Handling Decisions - In recent years, referee training has emphasized focusing on the player's contact point with the ball, and not allowing outside influences, such as spin after release, to influence ball handling decisions. A 2008 point of emphasis regarding the second team contact now instructs referees to only call multiple contacts that are obvious enough to be readily seen, and to be less severe when judging extremely athletic plays.

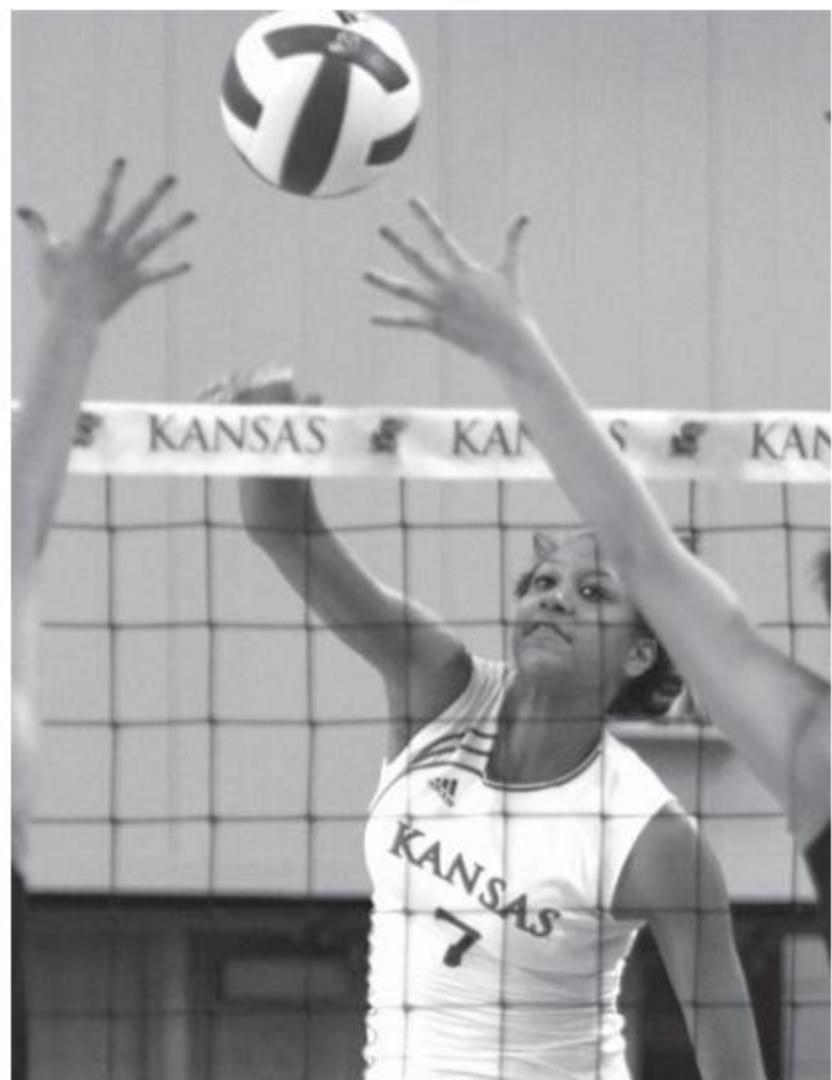

Volleyball Recognized For Academic Excellence

For the fourth-straight year, the University of Kansas volleyball team earned the American Volleyball Coaches Association Team Academic Award for achieving a 3.31 cumulative grade point average during the 2008-09 academic year.

The award, which was initiated in the 1992-93 academic year, honors collegiate and high school volleyball teams that display excellence in the classroom during the school year by maintaining at least a 3.30 cumulative team grade-point average.

Paige Mazour (above) was an Academic All-Big 12 First Team selection along with Karina Garlington (below).

2005 (0-1) LOS ANGELES, CALIF.

Kansas made its third-straight appearance in the 2005 NCAA Tournament. Despite a depleted lineup, the Jayhawks battled #16 UCLA to four games.

KU Falls at UCLA, 3-1, in NCAA First Round

LOS ANGELES, Calif. -- Despite a valiant effort by its short-handed squad, the University of Kansas volleyball team fell to 16th-seeded, 12th-ranked UCLA, 3-1, in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament.

The Jayhawks were without starters Andi Rozum (senior setter) and Jana Correa (junior outside hitter), who both suffered season-ending injuries. KU managed with just nine active players in its lineup.

Welcome to Kansas Athletics

Kansas Athletics and the media relations office welcomes your interest in KU volleyball and will make every effort to ensure that you enjoy your coverage of the Jayhawks. The KU media relations office will be available throughout the 2009 volleyball season to accommodate any media requests. Any additional questions should be directed to Christine Dieckmann, Assistant Media Relations Director. She can be reached at 785-864-7942 or email at cdieck@ku.edu.

KU Media Relations Office

The Kansas media relations office has moved to its new location in Suite 1400 on the first floor of Parrott. Office hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Members of the staff include: assistant athletics director/media relations Chris Theisen (men's basketball), associate director Mike Strauss (football), assistant director Beau White (graphic designer/football), assistant director Mike Cummings (soccer/baseball), assistant director Katy Lonergan (women's basketball), assistant director Christine Dieckmann (volleyball/softball), assistant Cara Schlinger (cross country/track and field), office/publications manager Erin Penning and photographer Jeff Jacobsen.

Horejsi Family Athletics Center & Parking

The Horejsi Family Athletics Center, the home of Jayhawk volleyball, is located just southwest of historic Allen Fieldhouse on the campus of the University of Kansas. Media members should use the northeast entrance of Horejsi, where a pass list will be located for all home matches. Season credentials may also be requested by emailing cdieck@ku.edu.

Parking is available on a first-come, first-serve basis in the KU parking lots to the east and south of the Horejsi Family Athletics Center. The KU Parking Department has been asked not to ticket cars parked in these lots on gamedays.

Media Services

Media seating, as well as radio broadcasts, will be available courtside on the north side of the Horejsi Court. The facility has wireless internet access. Notes, statistics and rosters are provided by the media relations office prior to each match. Following each set, the KU media relations office will provide final boxscores.

The Horejsi Family Athletics Press Row number is 785-864-0169. Additional phone and ethernet lines will also be available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Requests for radio broadcast rights must be made through the KU media relations office one week prior to a match.

Interview Policies

Media wishing to interview head coach Ray Bechard or student-athletes should contact assistant media relations director Christine Dieckmann. Both student-athletes and coaches will be available for interviews prior to and following most practices. Student-athlete interviews should be coordinated through the media relations office at least 24 hours in advance.

Additionally, KU athletes may also be made available following football and men's and women's basketball press conferences during the season. Other arrangements may be made at the coach or student-athlete's convenience.

Following all home games, Bechard and requested student-athletes will be available outside the locker room following a brief cool down period. For radio and televised games, coaches and athletes will be available following those media obligations.

Photographers

Accredited photographers will be permitted to shoot from the floor in front of press row on the north side of the gym. Photographers are asked not to shoot from behind either team's bench or behind the serving line on each end of the court.

Credential Requests

All requests for working press, photo and broadcast credentials to KU home matches should be submitted by e-mail or phone to:

Christine Dieckmann
Assistant Director Media Relations
Phone: 785-864-7942
E-mail: cdieck@ku.edu

Requests should be made no less than 24 hours prior to a game. Season media credentials will be available for pick up in the media relations office prior to and during the regular season during business hours. Media names and outlets will also be listed via a pass list at the Horejsi Family Athletics Center media entrance.

Getting Results

Rosters, schedules, student-athlete and coaches bios, weekly releases, statistics and match results can be found throughout the season on kuathletics.com, the official website of Kansas Athletics. Following each match, results and scores will be reported on the Jayhawk Hotline. To access the hotline, call 785-864-3355 then dial "6" for volleyball.

Media wishing to be added to our e-mail list to receive releases and match results throughout the season should e-mail cdieck@ku.edu.

www.big12sports.com

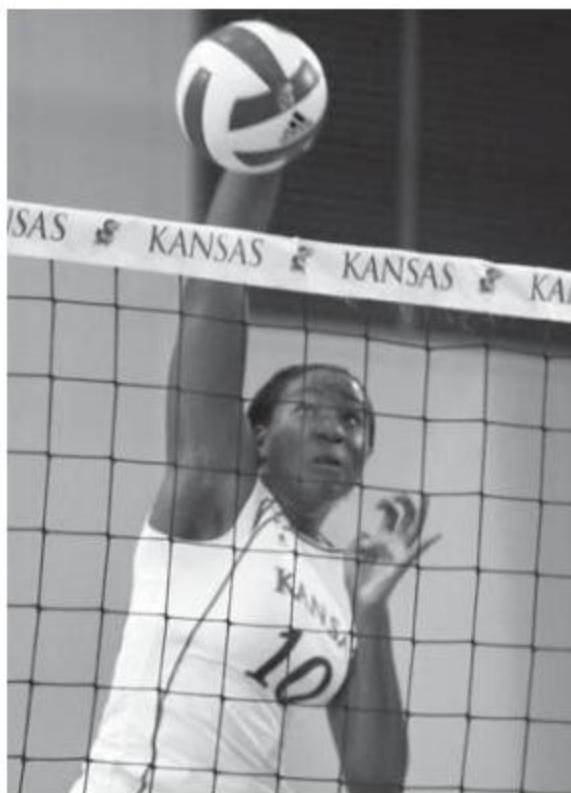

The Big 12 Conference official athletics website can be accessed by visiting www.big12sports.com. Volleyball information is updated daily with new material including standings, statistics, notes and other information. Links to each Big 12 school's athletic department home page is also located on the site.

KU Injury Policy

Injury information pertaining to a student-athlete will be released to the media through the media relations office after authorization from the head coach. It is appropriate for the head coach to answer questions and give updates about student-athlete injuries if they choose to do so. Members of the athletic training staff are not available for interview pertaining to specific student-athlete injuries or updates.
